

EXPLANATORY NOTE

NOTICE OF TERMINATION (Landlord refuses consent to assignment/ sub-letting of a fixed term tenancy)

Important: please read carefully before completing the notice of termination¹

This notice relates to a Fixed Term tenancy, that is, a tenancy that is defined for a specific period of time, for example 12 or 24 months. There are specific rules in relation to terminating a fixed term tenancy. If the tenancy contains a fixed term, the tenant cannot terminate the tenancy during that fixed period unless:

- a) the landlord has breached his/her tenancy obligations and has failed to remedy that breach;
- b) the landlord had refused consent to an assignment or sub-letting of the tenancy;
- c) the tenancy agreement permits the tenancy to be terminated during the fixed term; or
- d) the landlord agrees to the termination of the fixed term tenancy.

Section 186 of the Residential Tenancies Acts 2004-2022 (the “RTA 2004”) provides that if a Landlord refuses to consent to a sub-let or assignment of the tenancy, the tenant is entitled to terminate a fixed term tenancy by serving a Notice with the appropriate period of notice being provided in accordance with Section 66 of the RTA 2004. This applies whether the Landlord’s refusal is reasonable or not. This only applies to the termination of fixed term tenancies.

The notice periods that apply can be found here [Section 66 and Section 69] Visit www.rtb.ie for more information on how to terminate a tenancy.

- End of explanatory note -

¹This note and the attached notice of termination are intended as a guide only. You should refer to the specific requirements set out in the Residential Tenancies Act 2004 (as amended). The RTB accepts no liability for any errors or omissions.
