

Notices of Termination (NoTs) Received by the RTB, Q1 2024

This document provides information on Notices of Termination received by the Residential Tenancies Board (RTB) in Q1 2024. When reviewing the information there are some important points to note.

- Changes to legislation

Changes to the legislation introduced new responsibilities in 2019 for landlords. Where a landlord ended a tenancy that lasted more than six months, a copy of the NoT was required to be sent to the RTB within 28 days of the tenancy termination date as listed on the Notice.

From 6 July 2022, new legislation came into effect that requires landlords to send a copy of all NoTs to the RTB on the same day the Notice is served on the tenant. The NoT is invalid if this requirement is not met. The data presented in this report relates to NoTs received in Q1 2024 only.

- NoTs and Tenancies

It is important to note, the number of NoTs received should not be interpreted as directly correlating to one landlord/tenant/tenancy. For example, one NoT could be received which relates to multiple tenants in one tenancy or separate NoTs could be received for each tenant in a tenancy.

- NoTs are self-reported

While there is a legal obligation for landlords to notify the RTB a tenancy has ended it is important to note that NoTs are self-reported by landlords. The RTB figures are based on what is received by the RTB.

- Validity of a NoT

The RTB cannot provide legal advice to say if a Notice of Termination is valid or invalid. If a tenant feels the Notice of Termination is invalid and/or that the landlord has breached their obligations, they can take a Dispute case with the RTB. An independent mediator/adjudicator can assess the validity of a Notice of Termination during Dispute Resolution proceedings.

Please note since 6 July 2022, the length of time a tenant has for the referral of a dispute on the validity of a Notice of Termination received, has increased from 28 days to 90 days in cases where there has been no breach of tenancy obligations.
