

Third Party Request for Landlord Details

The Residential Tenancies Board is a public body setup to support and develop a well-functioning rental housing sector. The RTB provide a range of services and supports for landlords and tenants including the provision of a dispute resolution service. The RTB also provides support to third-parties in certain instances.

Landlords owe a duty to certain third-parties to enforce their tenant(s) obligations. A third-party may apply for dispute resolution if they believe that a landlord has breached a duty owed to him or her in failing to enforce a tenant's obligations. A dispute resolution application can only be made:

- If the third-party applicant is directly and adversely affected by the tenant's breach of obligations
- If, prior to making an application, the applicant has communicated, or attempted to communicate, with the landlord about the issues
- If the applicant has taken all reasonable steps to resolve the matter

Please note that in order to process this request for landlord contact details:

- The form must be completed in full in block capitals or typed
- The form must be signed and posted to the Residential Tenancies Board. E-mail or telephone requests are not accepted.
- The request must be made by the person(s) directly and adversely affected by the alleged conduct. An Owner Management Company or a Residents Association / Neighbourhood Watch Group may also request details where they are seeking to communicate with a landlord on behalf of a person affected.

The RTB will consider the request and will respond in writing to you as soon as possible. The RTB cannot provide landlord details if a tenancy is not registered but will initiate registration enforcement procedures in such instances. You can check if a tenancy is registered by visiting our website www.rtb.ie/check/index.html

Your personal information on this form will not be disclosed to the landlord or the tenant(s). However, in the event that you submit a subsequent application for dispute resolution, the dispute application form (including the applicant's name but not address) and all supporting documentary evidence would be copied in full to the landlord and tenant(s), who will be invited to attend the dispute resolution hearing.

N.B. This form is for the purpose of requesting landlord details in order to resolve a difficulty and is not itself an application for dispute resolution. For information on making an application for dispute resolution please visit our website www.rtb.ie/dispute-resolution/third-party-dispute-resolution-services/
